CLOSING REMARKS & PRAYER Brian Clark

Meditation

"I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth."
Job 19:25

PRAYER THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: "One of the most solemn and yet most glorious truths revealed in the Bible is that of Christ's second coming, to complete the great work of redemption. To God's pilgrim people, so long left to sojourn in "the region and shadow of death," a precious, joy-inspiring hope is given in the promise of His appearing, who is "the resurrection and the life," to "bring home again His banished." Our Father Cares, pp. 31

Our Mission

"Daily demonstrate the love of Jesus, searching for those who don't know Him, that we may lead them to heaven."

Special Offering: December 8th for the North American Division--Adventist Community Services. There are flyers in the foyer with additional information as well as their budget goals.

Investment Message: What dangers do we face when we hoard? Matt. 6:19, 20; Luke 12:16-21. God takes whatever we give to Him, multiplies it, and gives it completely new dimensions that we never would have dreamed of. Hannah learned that the greatest treasures are only secure when given to God. That which we hoard for ourselves here can, in an instant, be gone. Hannah knew who she was in God's eyes. This sense of her own worth gave her the freedom to give. We must remember that everything we have, all that we are, and all that we own, is only because of God's grace and goodness to us. That thought should help us be more willing to give back to the Lord rather than hoard for ourselves. Hoarding tells us a lot about ourselves, our character, and our lack of trust in God. Investment says we trust God to keep His promises.

The St. Louis ACS has been blessed with not one, but two deep freezers to replace the one that quit working. Praise God!
